SUEZ CANAL TRANSIT

Going through the Suez Canal is an incredible journey that connects the Mediterranean Sea with the Red Sea, creating a direct route between Europe and Asia. The canal is one of the world's most significant and busiest maritime passages, cutting down travel time by avoiding the lengthy trip around Africa's Cape of Good Hope.

As ships move through the canal, they pass between vast stretches of desert, flanked by sandy banks and occasional palm trees, with a unique, almost surreal landscape. For many mariners, it's both a breathtaking experience and a reminder of how this engineering marvel transformed global trade.

PORT SAID (03 July) - Time at leisure (no shore excursions organized)

Port-Saïd is a city-port in the northeast of Egypt, on a coastal strip between the Suez Canal, the Mediterranean Sea and Lake Manzaleh. In 1859, during the construction of the strait, the city of Port Said was initially established as a camp for the workers who participated in the excavation of the Suez Canal. It then becomes a modern urban center, and it is now the fifth largest city of Egypt in terms of population.

Day 1 - Port Said to Cairo

Upon disembarking the ship at Port Said, you will be met and depart for the three-hour drive to Cairo. Upon arrival to Cairo, you will be visiting The Citadel and Mohamed Ali Mosque. It is also referred to as the Alabaster Mosque due to the extensive use of that stone on some of the exterior walls and other surfaces. The mosque, the largest such structure built during the first half of the 19th century, is more impressive at a distance than close-up. Situated on the summit of the Citadel high atop the Citadel grounds, its great dome and towering minarets are the first features that catch your eye at the fortress.

Lunch will be served at deluxe restaurant before proceeding to Sakkara.

The Step Pyramid of Sakkara overlooks Zoser's mortuary complex. Dating from 2700 BC, the Step Pyramid is the oldest stone structure in the world and was designed by Imhotep for King Djoser. In addition to Djoser's Step Pyramid, there are another 16 pyramids on the site in various states of preservation or decay. Sakkara is also home to an impressive number of mastaba tombs. Because the necropolis was lost beneath the sands for much of the past two millennia, many of the mastaba tombs have been superbly preserved, with both their structures and internal decorations intact.

After a quick shopping stop, you will be transferred to the hotel.

Spend the night at the five-star Mena House Giza hotel in Cairo.

Upon arrival, you can check in, freshen up, and enjoy a delightful dinner at the hotel before settling in for the night and preparing for another incredible day of exploration the following day.

Day 2 - Cairo to Alexandria

After a buffet breakfast at the hotel, you will check out and depart for the visit to the Great Pyramids of Giza, that are considered the most famous of Egypt's attractions and the only monuments left of the ancient wonders.

The three main Pyramids at Giza were built as tombs by Cheops, his son Chephren, and Chephren's son Mykiernus to preserve each of the pharaohs' mummified body for eternity.

For centuries, these unique structures have intrigued the world while surviving the rise and fall of great dynasties.

Southeast of the great Pyramid stands the Sphinx carved out of solid rock around 2650 BC. Steeped in legend and superstition, the sphinx was a monument either to the sun god Ra or to Pharaoh Chephren.

Next, immerse yourself in over 5,000 years of Egyptian history by visiting the Grand Egyptian Museum (GEM), which is the world's largest archaeological museum. This architectural marvel houses over 100,000 artefacts, including the complete burial collection of King Tutankhamun. Marvel at colossal statues and intricate carvings, and explore exhibits that celebrate Egypt's rich heritage in a sustainable and respectful manner. The GEM promises an extraordinary, immersive journey through the ages.

Lunch will be served at one of the deluxe restaurants before the journey to Alexandria.

A three-hour drive will take you to Alexandria and your awaiting ship.

Built by the French between 1862 and 1869, this magnificent and completely renovated building is considered an architectural masterpiece. It combines both Arab and European architectural styles, as it consists of a rectangular space with a large central courtyard overlooking the building units. The museum houses historical collections and up to 2,000 artefacts, displayed in 12 exhibition rooms, that tell the story of the canal from its excavation to the present day. The museum houses over 4,000 artefacts, including ancient statues, stelae, pottery, jewellery and sarcophagi from different periods of Egyptian history.

Time permitting, on the way back to the port you can also make a photo stop at the Princess Ferial Gardens in Port Said, named after King Farouk's eldest daughter and inaugurated in 1869, the day the Suez Canal was opened.

Meet your local guide at the pier and head to the medieval Old Town of Rhodes for a guided walking tour of this UNESCO World Heritage Site. Entering through the gate of Panagia Bourgou, you will explore the main points of the town, starting with the Jewish quarter. You will pass by the Synagogue and, as you enter the centre, you will reach the Turkish quarter, today the busiest area of the city. Next, head for the Palace of the Grand Masters. Built in the 14th century in the north-west corner of the ramparts, it looks more like a fortress than a palace. It is built around a central courtyard paved with colourful marbles and contains magnificent Hellenistic and Roman mosaics from the neighbouring islands. After your visit to the Palace of the Grand Masters, continue along the Knights' Street, with its medieval buildings, towers and decorated façades. Wonderful frescoes have been found in some of the houses, as well as many vessels and utensils of daily use. After your guided tour of the site you will continue on and after a short drive you will arrive in Fira, the attractive capital of the island built on the top of the caldera. Stroll through the narrow, cobbled streets lined with traditional-style houses to reach the main church and take in the stunning views of the coastline, or enjoy a drink in one of the many local cafes during the free time.

Before returning to the ship, you will see the small Roman theatre, with stunning views over the gulf, and see the site where the ancient statue of Venus of Milos was discovered in 1820.
