This island tour offers a fascinating look into the world of Grenada's celebrated organic chocolate. Your journey begins with a visit to the Diamond Chocolate Factory, located in the village of Victoria on the island's west coast. Housed in a converted 18th-century rum distillery originally built by French monks, the factory is home to the renowned "Jouvay" chocolate - named one of the world's top ten chocolates by National Geographic. Although the visit does not include entry into the production area of the factory, you will gain insight into the full process of chocolate-making - from the harvesting of cocoa beans to seeing them sun-dried on traditional trays. A walk through the cocoa garden offers the chance to observe cocoa trees alongside other fragrant plants like nutmeg, cloves, chili, tropical flowers, and fruit trees. The visit concludes with a delicious chocolate tasting session. Afterward, continue to Concord Falls, set amidst the lush tropical forest where nutmeg and cocoa trees grow along the hillsides. Upon arrival, relax with a complimentary drink and, if conditions permit, take a refreshing swim in the natural waterfall pool. Following your visit, enjoy the scenic 45-minute drive back to the cruise terminal.

Please note:

- The order of visits may be reversed, with the waterfall visit first and the chocolate factory second.
- Wear a swimsuit under your clothes and bring sunscreen, a hat, sunglasses, a towel from the ship and water.
- Guests will have the opportunity to swim at the waterfall. The water may not always be crystal clear - particularly after rain. The terrain around the waterfall is uneven and can be slippery.
- This tour involves a long total travel time by minibus: 1h15min from St George's to the Chocolate factory, 45 min from the Chocolate factory to the waterfall, 45min from the waterfall to St George's. Roads may be bumpy in places.
