After a 45-minute journey by air-conditioned coach, you will arrive in Noto, considered one of the most beautiful towns in Sicily. Totally destroyed by an earthquake in 1693 and rebuilt in the 18th century, it is a perfect example of Baroque architecture. UNESCO has declared it a World Heritage Site and is funding the restoration of monuments damaged in the last earthquake in 1990.

On arrival in Noto, disembark from the coach and start your tour of the town on foot. Admire the imposing gate known as the Porta Nazionale, which leads to the main street where the most important monuments can be seen. At the heart of the city is the 18th-century Cathedral, which is currently being restored after being damaged in the 1990 earthquake.

Other impressive buildings include the Town Hall, the Archbishop's Palace, the Palazzo Sant'Alfano, the Church of Santissimo Salvatore and the Palazzo Villadorata, all fine examples of typical Sicilian Baroque architecture from the early 18th century. At the end of the visit, you will have some free time to do some shopping or perhaps enjoy an ice cream at the famous Caffé Sicilia before returning to Syracuse.

History & Culture | Unesco

Meet your guide at the pier and board a coach for a 15-minute drive to the Archaeological Park of Neapolis, the most impressive legacy of the ancient Greek city of Syracuse.

During a guided walking tour you will see the main highlights of the site, including the remains of the Greek theatre, the Roman amphitheatre, the quarry of Paradise and the famous "Ear of Dionysius".

The quarries of Syracuse were excavated using slave labour and then used as prisons. The "Ear of Dionysius" refers to an ear-shaped cave with unusual acoustics. Legend has it that Dionysius, the Greek tyrant who ruled Syracuse, used to listen to the prisoners' conversations to find out if they were plotting against him.

The Amphitheatre is one of the largest and most complete theatres left by the ancient world. The ruins give an idea of this huge arena.

After the visit, return to the lively Ortygia (Syracuse's old town) and continue on foot to discover its outstanding Baroque architecture and charming alleys. Starting from the Fountain of Arethusa, you will make a brief visit to the Cathedral and see other attractions such as the ruins of the Temple of Apollon, Archimedes Square with the Fountain of Diana and Corso Matteotti, the main shopping area of the Ortygia with its elegant boutiques. At the end of your visit, you will have some free time before walking back to the pier.

Please note:

- ✓ This tour involves extensive walking and standing (approximately 3 hours) over cobbled and uneven surfaces with some inclines and steps to negotiate. The order of the visits is subject to change.
- ✓ Dress for the weather, wear comfortable walking shoes and bring a hat and water. Appropriate attire is required when visiting religious sites (no bare shoulders or shorts).

PILOS - Nestor's Palace ruins & Methoni Fortress

History & Culture

A coach awaits you at Pylos harbour for the 30-minute drive to the ruins of Nestor's Palace, built in the 13th century BC. King Nestor is mentioned in the Homeric epics as a wise old ruler who took part in the Trojan wars.

The palace was strategically located on the top of Ano Eglianos Hill, overlooking the coastline, and was surrounded by a fortified wall. Excavations have revealed some early remains dating from before 1300 BC, an Old Palace (1280 BC) and a New Palace (1250 BC). The Palace of Nestor is considered to be the best preserved Mycenaean palace in Greece, although there are only a few remains at ground level. It was originally a two-storey building, decorated with frescoes, with facilities such as storerooms, workshops, baths, light wells, reception rooms and a sewage system. The buildings were almost completely destroyed by fire in the 12th century BC, but hundreds of clay tablets with inscriptions remained intact and were unearthed during excavations.

The tour continues with a visit to the fortress of Methoni on the southernmost tip of the western Peloponnese coast. This site has had a turbulent past, changing hands many times throughout its history. It was fortified as early as the 7th century BC and was used as a Byzantine fortress between 395 AD and 1204 AD. It then passed to the Venetians, who reinforced the fortifications in the 13th century, and was contested by the Turks and Venetians.

The Turks finally held the fortress until 1829, when they lost control of the Peloponnese during the Greek War of Independence. At the end of the visit you will reboard the coach for the short journey back to Pilos.

Please note:

- ✓ This tour involves extensive walking and standing over cobbles and uneven surfaces.
- ✓ Dress for the weather, wear comfortable walking shoes and bring a hat and water.
- ✓ Estimated travel times: 30 minutes between Pilos and the ruins of Nestor's Palace; 30 minutes between Nestor's Palace and Methoni; 15 minutes between Methoni and Pilos.

History & Culture | Food & Wine

A short drive will take you to the castle of Monemvasia. Begin your visit by passing through the only gate in the old town (Monemvasia's name comes from Moni, meaning 'single', and Emvasia, meaning 'entrance') and then discover the main sites of the early medieval town. Walk through the narrow, picturesque streets within the castle walls, so narrow that in many places only two people can walk side by side. Admire old stone houses and ancient Byzantine churches, many of which are in ruins. After the orientation tour, enjoy some free time before boarding the bus to reach Liotrivi Estate.

Liotrivi Estate is a fully restored manor house set amidst extensive olive groves. Its history begins in the Byzantine years as a winery producing the popular Malvasia wine. In the 19th century it became the summer residence of the important Ritsos family, then in 1929 it was transformed into a traditional olive press, which served the area until 1967. Enjoy a guided tour of the Liotrivi Historic Mansion and learn about the traditions, history and culture of this unique place. The tour includes a guided tour of the olive grove - where you will learn about the cultivation of the olive tree - and a visit to the old olive oil mill, where you will learn about the traditional method of extra virgin olive oil production. Taste local products in the open air of the estate, under the olive trees. The snacks will be accompanied by local Monemvasia wines from the Mansion's collection. You will also have the opportunity to sample other local products such as honey, homemade jams and pastries.

Please note:
